DIVISION POST FOR PADUCAH BOY

Made General Foreman Over Large Territory.

Headquarters at Princeton and Evansville and Nashville Are His Limits.

JOE WALKER'S PROMOTION

Joe Walker, a Paducah boy, who yesterday was plain "foreman of the round house," is today a division official on the Illinois Central, ranking next to Master Mechanic R. J. Turnbull. The change was made last night when authority came from Chicago to create a new office, that of "general foreman of the mechanical department of the Nashville and Evansville divisions of the Illinois Central," and this is the position the young Paducah was put into.

For years Walker has diligently plied his mechanical genius to the betterment of the company, and it is a just reward for his faithful service. Walker invented several devices which he placed in the service of the company. They meant thousands of dollars to the road annually. One was an apparatus for firing engines with crude oil, saving three gallons of oil. Many others of an equal value are credited to the young man's ingenuity.

The appointment was made by Master Mechanic R. J. Turnbull and endorsed by Supt. A. H. Egan of the Louisville division. Headquarters at Princeton, Ky., and his territory extends from Princeton to Evansville and from Princeton to Nashville. He has supervision over all mechanical works, the shops, engines and round houses. It is a position of responsibility, and a compliment to Walker.

O. A. Garber is acting foreman of the round house temporarily. Walker left this morning at 7:50 o'clock for Princeton to assume his new duties. Walker had been night foreman of the local round house three years and general foreman two years.

ALDERMEN

MEET TONIGHT AND CONSIDER TELEPHONE COMPROMISE

May Discuss Paving of Broadway and Jefferson to Eleventh—Other Matters.

The board of aldermen will meet tonight and consider, among other things, the resolution adopted by the lower board, conferring on the city solicitor authority to compromise the trouble with the Cumberland Telephone company. There are several street improvement ordinances and resolutions now before the lower board, which may get their first reading by the aldermen tonight.

It is suggested that possibly the matter of paving Broadway and Jefferson street with bituminous as far as Eleventh street may be considered by the board, in order that the balance of the street improvement fund may be expended at the earliest possible date.

STANDARD

GETS IN BAD AT JACKSON WITH GRAND JURY.

Over Thousand Counts in Indictments Returned Against Concern This Time.

Jackson, Tenn., Oct. 18.—The grand jury of the special term of United States court, special session, returned a voluminous indictment late this afternoon against the Standard Oil company before Judge John E. McCall, George Rudolph district attorney. The indictment was against the Standard Oil company, of Indiana, one of the companies of the Standard Oil group. It contains 1,524 counts, the maximum penalty applicable for each under interstate commerce act and its amendments is $20,000 and the minimum $1,000. Each count charges transportation of separate carload of oil at a discriminatory rate in favor of the Standard and each count constitutes a separate offense. The maximum total penalties possible under it would be $30,480,000, minimum total $1,524,000. It covers illegal shipments for the past three years. The indictment weighs eighteen and a half pounds, and is about five inches thick, and contains 500,000 words.

SHOT HER SPOUSE.

He Was in Jealous Rage, Chasing Her Around the House.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—In the presence of her daughter and a party of children Mrs. Sarah Alcole shot and killed her husband, John L. Alcole, early today at their home. The shots were fired to save her own life. Alcole was chasing her around the house with a butcher knife and she ran into her bedroom, took a revolver from the dresser and fired two shots, one striking the man in the left temple and the other in the lung. He died instantly.

FISH VICTORIOUS IN I. C. FIGHT

Empowered To Vote All The Harriman Stock.

Old Directors Re-elected and One Vacancy in Board Filled at Meeting.

NEARLY ALL SHARES VOTED.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—As soon as the meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central was called, it became evident that there would be no fight for the control of the road, as William Nelson Cromwell, acting for Mr. Harriman, turned over to Stuyvesant Fish the president of the road, all the proxies for stock held by Mr. Harriman and Mr. Fish was empowered to vote all the Harriman stock in the meeting.

Mr. Harriman was not personally present at the meeting. Mr. Cromwell said that Mr. Harriman left New York with him, but had left the train at Fishkill, N. Y., and had returned to New York.

At the meeting of the stockholders, 708,613 shares of stock were represented and of these Mr. Fish held, after receiving the Harriman stock, 698,657 shares. Sixteen thousand and sixty-six shares were voted personally by their owners.

President Fish nominated J. W. Cutting, of New York, to serve for two years as the successor of the late W. M. Grinnell. The three retiring directors, Charles M. Schwab, J. T. Harahan and Cornelius Vanderbilt, were nominated to succeed themselves as directors for a term of four years.

ANOTHER INDICTMENT.

May Follow in the Thaw Case, Says Jerome.

New York, Oct. 18.—That Harry K. Thaw may have had an accomplice before the fact in the killing of Stanford White was the contention of District Attorney Jerome in an argument before Recorder Goff today. The district attorney's words pointed directly at Evelyn Nesbit Thaw. "I am not sure that there is not another that could be coupled with Harry K. Thaw for an indictment for murder in the first degree," said Mr. Jerome dramatically. "It does not appear where Thaw got the revolver with which he killed Stanford White. It does not appear that words were not spoken that urged him on."

SUCCESSFUL

Was Farmers' Institute in Lyon County.

Col. John L. Smith, of Kuttawa, Lyon county, proprietor and editor of the Lyon County Times, is in Paducah today. He came in this morning on business and will return to night.

"We have just closed one of the most successful combination farmers' institution and county street fairs ever held in Lyon county," he stated. "We had three days beginning Monday, and the last day brought fully 4,000 visitors."

50,000 VOTERS NEGLECT TO REGISTER.

New York, Oct. 18.—The total registration in this city for four days is 660,000, which indicates a vote of about 620,000. The actual gain over last year is 16,500, but allowing for increase of population is only about 5,000, and on the basis of the registration of 1904 there are 50,000 otherwise qualified voters in the city who did not register.

ATLANTIC STORM STRIKES HAVANA

No Communication With Cuba And Lower Florida.

Cables Break and Disquieting Rumors About Havana Are Afloat—Warning Sent Out.

EASTERN COAST THREATENED.

Miami, Fla., Oct. 18.—Cuba undoubtedly will be swept by a hurricane and it is feared great damage will be done along the Atlantic coast. Weather bureau bulletins are issued from Washington giving notice of a storm, and warning vessels that navigation will be dangerous for 48 hours.

2:30 o'clock—Florida Peninsula is to be added to the storm scene. Apparently it will suffer greatly. Jacksonville is now the point furthest south not cut off from wire communication.

Storm Sweeps Cuba.

Key West, Oct. 18.—It is reported that a cyclone struck Havana last night. No details have been received but it is rumored great damage was done. Cable communication with Cuba was interrupted. A message came through before the cable went out, stating that a heavy rainstorm accompanied by high winds occurred in Havana yesterday afternoon.

OFF THE CORNER JOHNIES TO GO

Fourth And Broadway Will Be Kept Clear.

Police Judge Puryear and Chief Col. Hins Agree on Plan to Abate Nuisance.

PATROLMAN TERRELL ON DUTY

A "move on" edict was issued from the office of Chief of Police James Collins this morning, and this time "it goes." All loungers must "move on" at Fourth and Broadway or be assisted to the police station by a policeman stationed there for that particular purpose.

"We must do something to remedy the Fourth and Broadway nuisance," Police Judge Puryear declared, addressing Chief of Police James Collins. "It is getting so bad that I receive numerous complaints in person from ladies."

Chief Collins agreed. He has issued order after order, but many who blockade the pavements are passengers waiting for transfers to street cars. It is the loafers the police are after.

Chief Collins told Captain Harlan to send a patrolman to that corner and arrest all who refuse to move on.

Patrolman Thad Terrell was the first to take the post.

GRAND LODGE

Masons Elect Officers and Are Entertained.

Louisville, Oct. 18.—Capt. John H. Cowles, of Louisville, was elected grand junior warden of the Kentucky grand lodge of Masons on the first ballot. Samuel K. Veech, of Carlisle, in accordance with Masonic traditions, was advanced to the office of grand master, while Henry P. Barrett, of Henderson, the grand senior warden, was made deputy grand master. Virgil P. Smith, of Somerset, was advanced from grand junior warden to grand senior warden.

Capt. John H. Leathers and Capt. Henry B. Grant, were re-elected to the office of grand treasurer and grand secretary, respectively.

The members of the grand lodge assembled yesterday afternoon at the Masonic as the guests of the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home. A pleasant program was concluded, with an exhibition drill given by the Home drill corps.

Rewarded for Killing Girl.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 18.—For killing an unarmed girl a soldier was thanked and given a reward of $500 by the commander of the St. Petersburg garrison. The victim was Mile. Semenova, a young medical student, who was shot Sept. 10, while confined in the central detention prison, because she looked out of a window of her cell overlooking the court yard.

SION OCCURRED IN THE REAR OF THE MEININGER STORE WHERE CHARLES WAGNER WAS SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN AT THE TIME.

WHAT CAUSED THE EXPLOSION IS NOT KNOWN. FIRE FOLLOWED, AND THE ENTIRE TOWN ON THE WEST SIDE WAS SOON ABLAZE. FIREMEN FROM NEIGHBORING TOWNS SAVED THE TOWN FROM TOTAL DESTRUCTION.

LIQUOR IS BAN.

NO ONE MAKING OR SELLING IT ELIGIBLE TO MASONRY.

Louisville, Oct. 18.—The Kentucky grand lodge of Masons today passed by a large majority a resolution forbidding into the Masonic lodges any one engaged in the manufacture or sale of liquor.

PRINCIPAL AND SUPERINTENDENT FAVOR IT, AND PUPILS WILL PROVIDE EQUIPMENT.

TEACHERS ARE RECOVERING.

IF THE SCHOOL BOARD WILL APPROPRIATE ENOUGH MONEY TO BUILD A FLOOR IN THE ATTIC OF THE WASHINGTON SCHOOL, THE PUPILS WILL ASSURE ONE OF THE BEST GYMNASIUMS IN THE WESTERN END OF THE STATE, AND THE MATTER WILL BE PLACED BEFORE THE BOARD FOR CONSIDERATION. "WE HAD ONE BOY IN THE SCHOOL WHO WAS HARD TO MANAGE. HE WAS ALWAYS CAUSING TROUBLE, AND HIS DEPORTMENT GRADE WAS LOW," Supt. Lieb STATED, "BUT HE GOT INTO ATHLETICS AND MADE A SUCCESS OF IT. IT INTERESTED HIM IN THE REGULAR SCHOOL WORK, AND NOW HIS DEPORTMENT IS PERFECT."

THE REV. W. H. PINKERTON DELIVERED AN EXCELLENT LECTURE TO THE HIGH SCHOOL THIS MORNING.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18.—STREET RAILWAY PATRONS MUST PUT UP WITH THE INCONVENIENCE OF TAKING "THE CAR BEHIND," ACCORDING TO THE COURT OF APPEALS, IF IT IS NECESSARY FOR A CAR TO MAKE A SHORT CUT TO MAKE UP LOST TIME. A DECISION TO THIS EFFECT WAS GIVEN TODAY IN THE CASE OF WALTER B. DRYDEN AGAINST THE ST. LOUIS TRANSIT COMPANY. THE COURT HELD THAT "THE MERE INCONVENIENCE TO THE PLAINTIFF OF GETTING OFF ONE CAR TO TAKE PASSAGE ON ANOTHER TO BE CARRIED IMMEDIATELY TO HIS DESTINATION WAS NOT AN ACTIONABLE BREACH OF CONTRACT."

ASLEEP ON RODS

TRAMP CARRIED HIS TOILET ARTICLES.

Gazed at Railroad Shops With Contempt and Shook Dust of Paducah.

James Toronto tramp and champion truck rider, took off his hat to the Paducah Illinois Central shops this morning, bowed a farewell to Special Policeman Dick Tolbert, and started off towards the woods carrying one of the most curious pieces of luggage ever viewed by the experienced policeman.

"The tramp showed me a machinist's union card, and stated that he was 'working' east," Tolbert stated. "He said 'working' with a grimace, and I understood. I found him on the rods under a large furniture car asleep. His pillow was his hand bag, or hand sack, I should say. When roused he rubbed his eyes, asked me for a match and inquired where he was. I told him and he 'reckoned them must be railroad shops.' After his guess was affirmed he left. I did not arrest him because he agreed to 'hoof' it out of town, and we are getting rid of all such characters."

In the bag which the tramp carries was a looking glass, comb and brush, small tip box filled with cigar stumps, several old letters, some soap, a pair of shoes, a coat, a hat and several other minor articles of wearing apparel.

Men of Good Clothes Sense

Will appreciate at once the success which has attended our efforts to offer only the best when they see the stunning exhibit of late designs and authentic styles which we are showing this fall. Never before have we opened a season with so complete and attractive a display as we now have. You'll be interested in looking over the new styles and we believe a few minutes spent with us will help you more to make up your mind and better acquaint you with what will be "the proper thing" this fall and winter, than hours spent elsewhere. There is also a decided advantage in purchasing now, because you can see a complete display—not a style nor a size missing—and with a line of such range and scope as ours, this means a great deal—more than you can possibly realize until you come in and look the display over.

We do not specialize on any one line, though we, of course, have our favorites just as you would. Instead, we offer for your approval six complete and well-rounded lines of ready-to-slip-on clothing, each conceded by competent judges to be the best of its class. It's the UNIFORM high standard of quality and workmanship which we are always seeking and you may come to us confident that our years of experience has led us to it unerringly. From these lines just select the price which suits your purse and we will guarantee to suit your most critical ideas as to style and wearing quality.

Canterberry Fine Clothes—For particular men. Either suits or overcoats $20.00 to $45.00.

College Brand Clothes—For the young chap who likes a touch of daring in cut and fabric. Either suits or overcoats $10.00 to $30.00.

The Washington—One of our late acquisitions in really fine things. Either suits or overcoats $18.00 to $30.00.

The Hamburger—An exceedingly popular line with our trade in former years. Either suits or overcoats $15.00 to $25.00.

Henry J. Brock & Co.'s Union Label Clothing—Made from the first to the last stitch by skilled union labor. Either suits or overcoats $7.50 to $25.00.

The Walcoff—The strongest popular priced line on the market today. Either suits or overcoats $7.50 to $15.00.

Fine Novelties In Boys' Suits

In telling you of the serviceable, reasonably priced suits shown in our Children's Department, it would be an injustice to both of us not to mention our SUITS WITH EXTRA TROUSERS. An extra pair of trousers will double the life of a boy's suit. Boys, who are boys, are always long on coats and short on trousers. To accommodate many parents who know their value and always ask for them, we had extra pants made for several of our best styles. The additional expense is trifling, though the investment is a mighty profitable one. Try an extra pair of pants with the next suit you buy for that strenuous boy.

The new belt suits, single and double-breasted; with plain or bloomer trousers; new things in sailors, Russians and Norfolks. High-grade novelties not to be found anywhere else, and of which we will have no duplicates—at a price range of $5 to $15.

Boys' Reeffers $2.50 to $10.

Topcoats $3.00 to $12.00.

Overcoats $3.50 to $15.00.

A river-rising rain fell last night. The fall was .66 inches. The gauge did not register so sharp a fall for the last 24 hours, the stage this morning being 11., a fall of .8. Business at the wharf was quiet.

The re-entrance of the Lee line into the Cincinnati-Memphis trade is an accomplished fact, the Georgia Lee having left Memphis yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock for Cincinnati. It will arrive here Friday morning. The Peters Lee will wait till Tuesday before starting. The difference between having and not having the Lee line running is the difference between a local and a trunk line railroad.

Cairo now is the rendezvous of all the gypsies in this part of the country. The Stacker Lee has a contract to carry to Vicksburg, Miss., 350 persons, 170 horses, and 80 wagons, all from Cairo Saturday, and all belong to the Gypsy outfit of which those here yesterday are a part.

Lee Rhodes, first clerk on the Dick Fowler, tells an interesting tale of their camp life. The band that went down on the Dick Fowler yesterday pitched their camps on the wharf. The men got meat up town and this is the process of cooking. A skillet was put on the fire, the men reached down into their pockets and pulled out kidneys, livers and hearts, which were not wrapped. They sliced these and threw them into the skillets, without grease or any cleaning preparation. Before the meat had time to get done, the little kids would sneak up and steal the hot meat with their bare hands and dash off to eat it. The only garment, one little rascal had on was a man's vest, but he was as hairy as if he had been clothed in the king's purple.

THE FARMER.

Back of our commerce, behind the industries that make for the appearance of a city, bolstering our prosperity, feeding us and consuming our city products, is the farmer. He is the one independent, indispensable, long ignored but now self-asserting factor in the community life. Take him away and we would starve or turn farmers ourselves. Take everything else away and the farmer will continue to prosper in his own way, making what he needs and going without that which he does not need.

Once it was truly said of the farmer that he ploughed, and sowed and reaped and disposed of his crops, just as his father did, and his grandfather and his great grandfather. But times have changed and brought with them more people, the older sections are becoming thickly settled and great cities have sprung up, developing their own problem of food supply, so that farmers now have to figure how to get maximum yield out of the minimum acreage. State and government have taken an interest in the matter and agricultural experiment stations have developed experts and evolved theories in the economy of farming that are destined to revolutionize the industry ere the time comes when America is crowded like the countries of Europe.

That is the meaning of the assemblage here today. Farmers are here to learn something of scientific farming, and Paducah welcomes them for that purpose. Thousands of acres of land are going to waste—thousands of acres are the scenes of waste—and that loss is the loss of the community. The farmer must learn the lesson, the city man is just beginning to understand—that the wealth of one is the wealth of all, and the waste of one robs the whole community.

Paducah hopes to become more and more the real heart of western Kentucky and more and more to become the market place of the section. Her foremost thinkers plan to develop greater and more diversified agricultural resources hereabouts, that we may not only keep our money at home, but that we may establish a market abroad for certain products.

We wish to buy the farmer's crops; we wish to sell him articles of use; and first of all we wish to cultivate that friendly intercourse with our neighbors that will enable us to "get together" on all projects that promise benefits to this whole section.

This is the first time western Kentucky has had a reunion. We are glad it is a reunion distinctly of farmers. We are glad it is held in Paducah, and we are glad you all came, and we hope now that the ice is broken you can find your way back to Paducah, and will think the trail comfortable and attractive.

Another tie that linked us tenderly with the past is broken, and now the name of Mrs. Varina Howell Davis, the only mistress of the Southern Confederacy's executive mansion, must take its place among the memories of a time that was. And yet, with the taking off of each of those, who were most closely associated with the history of the sixties, we realize that there is nothing of bitterness left of that struggle; and that gentle, dignified old lady, whose intellect and grace adorned the mansion house, when she saw her husband elevated to the highest honors in a new-born republic, and whose woman's caresses nursed him when sick and a prisoner, he was stripped of all his power and possessions, lived to see the spirit that bred the war cemented into bands that make the union indissoluble. She was but the heroine of lost cause, yet a wreath of flowers from the white house attests that she is one of the nation's dead.

Some men made in the image of their creator are stubborn and try us sorely; but a flying machine that goes up and won't come down, a submarine boat that goes down and won't come up, and an automobile that goes out and won't come back, are instruments of Providence to inflict humility in the breast of the mechanical inventing human being.

A Covington woman was awarded $20,000 against her mother-in-law for alienating her husband's affections. Most anybody would rather have the verdict than a husband with a mother like that, even if the jury does put a high valuation on him. The question is, what does the mother-in-law think of the bargain?

The young gentleman of Harvard, who, in company with Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., assaulted a policeman in Boston Commons, has been discharged; but next time he gets in a scrape he will be careful not to take the son of the president of the United States along.

Secretary Root on his return from Panama expresses surprise at the amount of work done on the canal. Some yellow magazine writers have expressed surprise at the amount of work yet to be done—merely a difference in the point of view.

Instead of charging so much the inch, the board of public works, which was invested with authority to regulate the use of swinging signs for the protection of life, should charge so much the pound. Then if the signs fall and—

The Utterback Advertising agency was permitted to resume use of the billboard at Kentucky avenue and Fourth streets if the board is moved back several feet from the pavement as not to endanger pedestrians.

The street inspector was ordered to repair Fifteenth street which was damaged by depressions from a sewer built to Cross creek from the Illinois Central hospital, and charge the cost to the railroad hospital association.

Contractor Haynes, of Cairo, asked for a price on the old city steam roller. The board named $600 which is being considered.

Repairs to alleys near Nineteenth and Clay streets were ordered.

A fence was ordered built across South Fourth street to suspend traffic until the fill is completed.

Contractor Will Husbands rented the city's horse power roller at the regular rate.

The blood must maintain a steady, swift and equal flow or bad consequences follow. Every organ and tissue must get its right share of blood, no more, no less. Stop it and the system is soon poisoned with accumulated body sewage, and lack of proper nourishment sets up, headaches, tired, worn out sensations, no life, no energy and other kindred ailments follow.

Straight the blood flow, and they all leave.

This is the Osteopathic theory. It merely goes back to the beginning of disease. It finds most disease is associated with an abnormal blood flow.

Especially during the fall and winter months is it necessary to keep the blood flow right. Exercise of the right sort is a good stimulant for circulation, but the dry hot air treatment, followed by the Osteopathic treatments, which I am giving with such marked good results, is the best treatment yet discovered.

Why? Simply because they go to the basis.

Come to see me at any time and I can easily satisfy you that I can soon build up the run-down system, while you are attending to your usual duties. I shall, too, be pleased to refer you to people you know well who are enthusiastic in their praises of the treatments.

My office hours are from 8 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m.

SISTER ADELE OF THE HOLY CROSS

Nursed Sick in The Paducah
Military Hospital.

Came Here in 1861 by Order of General Grant and Then Was on Steamboat.

GOVERNMENT GAVE PENSION.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 18.—Sad news came last evening from Notre Dame, Ind., telling of the death of Sister Adele, who passed away peacefully at the Mother House of St. Mary's, in that city, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She had been there since last July, leaving Cairo then after having recovered from a severe attack of illness which it was feared would be her last.

Sister Adele's name was Catherine Moran. She was born in County Mayo, Ireland, 74 years ago, coming to America in 1850, and making her home in Philadelphia. She joined the Sisters of the Holy Cross in 1855. A partial story of her work in the civil was given Cairo paper some weeks ago, from which it appeared that she came to Cairo on Sunday, October 24, 1861, in company with five other sisters, one of whom was Sister Magdalene, who is still in the infirmary here. The sisters reported to Gen. Grant who sent them to Paducah where they took charge of the military hospital. They remained in Paducah four months when Sister Adele and some of her companions were detailed to take charge of the sick and wounded on the hospital boat Red Raven, plying in the lower Mississippi. She remained on this boat during the war and was discharged in the summer of 1865 when she returned to the Mother House at Notre Dame.

In 1870 she came to Cairo, remaining in the infirmary here two years, and returned in 1886, on March 1, to take charge of the hospital here.

Both Sister Adele and Sister Magdalene were granted pensions by the government several years ago in recognition of their services to the government and the sick and wounded during the war.

The funeral services over the remains of Sister Adele will be held at an early hour Friday morning.

The smart wedding invitation or announcement is engraved as simply as possible nowadays, but if the bride wants elaborate treatment of her marriage certificate she can have it. These may be had done by hand and beautifully illuminated on parchment or Japanese vellum, and some of the fall brides are having theirs framed and hung in the boudoir.

With Edged Tools

"No, sir. It's not that. Missis Marie was tellin' me about that—awful scourge that, sir. No, the poor chaps are wide awake enough—grousin', and off their heads, too, mostly."

"Call Mr. Durnovo."

"Met Mr. Durnovo, sir, goin' out as I came in."

In a few minutes Jack joined Durnovo and Oscar, who were talking together on the terrace in front of the house. Guy Oscar was still in his pajamas, which he had tucked into topboots. He also wore a sun helmet, which added a finish to his costume. They got quite accustomed to this get-up during the next three days, for he never had time to change it, and somehow it ceased to be humorous long before the end of that time.

"Oh, it's nothing," Durnovo was saying, with a singular eagerness. "I know these chaps. They have been paid in advance. They are probably shamming, and if they are not they are only suffering from the effects of a farewell glorification. They want to delay our start. That is their little game. It will give them a better chance of deserting."

"At any rate we had better go and see them," suggested Jack.

"No, don't!" cried Durnovo eagerly, detailing him with both hands. "Take my advice and don't. Just have breakfast in the ordinary way and pretend there is nothing wrong. Then afterward you can lounge casually into the camp."

"All right," said Jack rather unwillingly.

"It has been of some use, this scare," said Durnovo, turning and looking toward the river. "It has reminded me of something. We have not nearly enough quinine. I will just take a quick canoe and run down to Loango to fetch some."

He turned quite away from them and stooped to attach the lace of his boot.

"I can travel night and day, and be back here in three days," he added. "In the meantime you can be getting on with the loading of the canoes, and we will start as soon as I get back."

He stood upright and looked around with weatherwise, furtive eyes.

"Seems to me," he said, "there's thunder coming. I think I had better be off at once."

In the course of his inspection of the lowering clouds which hung, black as ink, just above the trees his eyes lighted on Joseph, standing within the door of the cottage watching him with a singular half suppressed smile.

"Yes," he said hurriedly, "I will start at once. I can eat some sort of breakfast when we are under way."

He looked beneath his lashes quickly from Jack to Guy and back again. Their silent acquiescence was not quite satisfactory. Then he called his own men and spoke to them in a tongue unknown to the Englishmen. He hurried forward their preparations with a feverish irritability which made Jack Meredith think of the first time he had ever seen Durnovo, a few miles farther down the river, all palpitating and trembling with climatic nervousness. His face was quite yellow and there was a line drawn diagonally from the nostrils down each cheek, to lose itself ultimately in the heavy black mustache.

Scarcely had the boat disappeared in the bend of the river before the rain broke. The thunder crashed out in sharp reports, and the men ceased rowing and crouched down in the canoe. But Durnovo knew that behind him he had left a greater danger; smallpox had laid its hand on the camp at Misala.

It is still said on the Ogowe river that no man travels like Victor Durnovo. Certainly it is that in twenty-seven hours from the time he left Misala on the morning of the great storm he presented himself before Maurice Gordon in his office at the factory at Loango.

"Will you be at home tonight?" asked Durnovo, gently pushing aside the hospitable decanter. "I have got a lot of work to do today, but I should like to run in and see you this evening."

"Yes, come and dine."

Durnovo shook his head and looked down at his wrinkled and draggled clothing.

"Well, I'll lend you a black coat. Seven o'clock sharp."

Durnovo hurried away with a gleam of excitement in his dark eyes.

Maurice Gordon did not resume his work at once. He sat for some time idly drumming with his fingers on the desk.

"If I can only get her to be civil to him," he reflected aloud, "I'll get into this business yet."

At 7 o'clock Durnovo appeared at the Gordons' house. He had managed to borrow a dress suit and wore an orchid in his buttonhole. It was probably the first time that Jocelyn had seen him in this garb of civilization, which is at the same time the most becoming and the most trying variety of costume left to sensible men in these days. A dress suit finds man out sooner than anything except speech.

Jocelyn was civil in her reception; more so, indeed, than Maurice Gordon had hoped for. She seemed almost glad to see Durnovo, and evinced quite a kindly interest in his movements. Durnovo attributed this to the dress suit, while Maurice concluded that his obvious hints thrown out before dinner had fallen on fruitful ground.

At dinner Victor Durnovo was only charmed with the interest that Jocelyn

The payments of said rentals shall be made as provided in the original ordinance contract.

Section 2. All additional hydrants or extensions of mains that may be erected hereafter by the Paducah Water company, its successors or assigns, as provided in the original ordinance contract, during the said eighteen (18) years, shall be charged and paid for as provided in section one hereof; but at the expiration of ten (10) years from the time this ordinance shall have been finally approved, a set out above, all the then fire hydrants shall be charged and paid for at the uniform rate as above provided, and the contract therefor shall expire at the end of the eighteen years fixed in section 1.

Theatrical Notes

Dear "Old Innocence."

There will be more pretentious productions of the legitimate drama in Paducah this season, but few more meritorious, and none more enjoyable than the revival of "Old Innocence" last night by Mr. Tim Murphy. A curtain call after each act and a demand for a speech at the end of the performance, show what the audience thought of the piece and players. "Old Innocence" calls for a small cast and Mr. Murphy has put quality into his play instead of quantity. Critics and theater patrons have said all there is to say about the quaint, gentle character of Jason Green, as portrayed by Mr. Murphy, who makes every point tell and gets out all the delicate comedy in the situations Dorothy Sherrill, his leading woman, is known wherever Tim Murphy is known, and plays

Miss Jane Kennard, in "The Toast of the Town," at The Kentucky Saturday matinee and night.

The part of Jason Green's wife to complete satisfaction and incidentally wears some gowns that make the women sit up and take notice. James Cooper, in the role of Flint Green, the opposite of Old Innocence, received his meed of applause and was particularly fine in the drunken scene, which he never for one moment overacted—a rarity. John Arthur, in the role of Ben Green; Miss Louise Whitfield, as Olive; O. J. Griffin, as Joe, the colored butler, and James J. Dudley, as Con, the shoemaker, all deserve special mention for contributing to the illusion of the story. Irwin J. Hess and Mrs. Aubrey Powell, in the characters of Frank Goodfriend, and the cook, respectively, were acceptable in parts that gave them little opportunity.

Kentucky Theater.

The DePew-Burdeete Stock company which will make its first appearance at the Kentucky for one week starting Monday, October 22, is said to be the largest organization of its kind traveling. They hold the record of playing to the largest receipts ever known in the history of a popular priced attraction at Savannah and Knoxville. On Monday night, their engagement will open with the sensational comedy drama "The Power of Truth," on which occasion ladies will be admitted free under the well known conditions. A feature will be the specialties between acts.

Jane Kennard will present Clyde Fitch's play, "The Toast of the Town" at The Kentucky Saturday matinee and night. Miss Kennard has achieved, according to all accounts, one of the greatest triumphs of her career in this play. He has provided Miss Kennard with a role—that of Betty Singleton—which gives the actress splendid opportunities. The play is in four acts, and Mr. Fitch has introduced many surprising novelties in it. The supporting company has been spoken of as being of surprising excellence.

Freeman Chapel, at Hopkinsville, of which Dr. T. J. Moppins is pastor, is the largest charge in the district, and reported 98 per cent. of all assessments paid. The church paid for the support of the pastor and presiding elder $725, and $500 for incidental expenses.

The Rev. R. S. Stout, D. D., secretary of the board of church extension, with headquarters in Little Rock, and the Rev. W. B. West, D. D., secretary of the missionary society, are at the conference. Dr. West will hold a missionary mass meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

COLORED M. E. CONFERENCE.

Fine Reports and Field Secretaries
Are on Hand.

After organizing yesterday the West Kentucky Conference of the Colored Methodist Episcopal church got down to business today hearing the reports of the pastors of the various charges. The Hopkinsville district, of which the Rev. J. M. Tate is presiding elder, made a good showing. The Rev. J. T. Moppins, pastor of Freeman Chapel; the Rev. J. W. McClure, at Trenton, and the Rev. J. M. Hill, pastor of Lane Tabernacle, Hopkinsville, made the best report in the district.

Dr. J. R. Coleman has returned from a visit in Louisville.

The Reason

In the ordinary heater the draft enters the front, passes up through the fire and out the flue at the top. In this way only about 60 per cent of the burnable properties of your fuel are consumed, the rest passes up the flue unburned in the form of gases and smoke. In the the Hot Blast Down-Draft enters from the top, circulates throughout and over the fire and produces perfect combustion, which consumes all of the burnable elements in your fuel; thus the Wilson will give you 40 per cent more heat with a given amount of soft coal than any other heater, or in other words, your fuel bill will be reduced 40 per cent.

Is this worth considering?
